DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kiss.

Kiss discloses an educational aid comprising a support having a surface, and various indicia on the surface, including a plurality of gaming zones disposed around the periphery of a central area of the surface, the zones having symbols, colors and other indicia associated therewith. To the extent that the indicia of the claimed invention are not disclosed by Kiss, these limitations are directed to printed matter. The content of printed matter will not overcome the prior art where there is no new and nonobvious functional relationship between the printed matter and the underlying substrate. See In re Ngai, 70 USPQ2d 1862 (Fed. Cir. 2004) and In re Gulack, 217 USPQ 401 (Fed. Cir. 1983). Essentially, the only structure recited in the claims is a support having a surface. Kiss anticipates this structure.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Thompson, Devin, Rivera, Ball, Boig, Hertzog, Ramos, Neil and Yang disclose various educational aids and game board surfaces.
